As Vesuvius Continues to Deal Death and Destruction

NOBLE WORK OF RESCUE

KING AND QUEEN OF ITALY PERSON-ALLY DISTRIBUTING ALMS

The Whole of Southern Italy is Enveloped in Darkness, Sadness and Sorrow.

Naples, April 10.—The number of fatalities reported in the last few hours has increased alarmingly. Over 500 deaths are known to have occurred as the result of the eruption and when the full story is written, it is ever is, this number is likely to be much larger. Great numbers of persons from all the villages threatened by the volcano are missing and it is impossible in the confusion which reigns throughout the country to try to account for them.

Many persons have also been injured and as it is almost impossible to supply medical assistance numbers of these will undoubtedly be added to the death list.

Naples, April 10.—Five hundred lives have been lost as a result of the eruption, many towns and the fertile countryside being overwhelmed by ashes and cinders from the vomiting volcano Vesuvius. The damage wrought by lava and ashes is incredible. Vast quantities of cinders have been carried great distances. This has caused the "practical" destruction of San Giuseppe, a place of 6,000 inhabitants. All but 200 of the people had fled from San Giuseppe, and these 200 assembled in a church to attend mass. While the priest was performing his sacred office the roof fell in and about 60 persons were badly injured. These unfortunates were for hours without surgical or medical help or food. At Ottolano five churches and ten houses fell under the weight of ashes and cinders, which lie four feet deep on the ground. In the fall of the buildings about 12 persons were killed and many were injured. The village is completely deserted by its people. After the evacuation of the place the barracks and prisons fell in.

The most of the buildings in the villages are of flimsy construction and have flat roofs, and so are but poorly calculated to bear the weight of ashes and cinders that have fallen upon them. Inevitably it will be found that a considerable number of persons have perished by the falling of their homes. Although the eruption of the volcano is less violent than it was 24 hours ago, the ashes are still falling in great quantities.

Reports from coast and inland towns depict terrible devastation. San Giorgio, Cremona, Portici, Rosina and Torre del Greco having been almost completely abandoned. The inhabitants of Torre Annunziata are prepared to leave at a moment's warning. Somma Vesuviana is another village which has suffered most severely.

Special railway trains, warships and steamers are employed in conveying the homeless people to Naples, Rome and Castellammare, while large numbers of people are fleeing overland in the direction of Caserta. Not less than 15,000 refugees have reached Castellammare, where the steamer Princess Mafalda is anchored. This vessel left the island of Capri with 1,000 passengers, including many foreigners, on board, but she was unable to reach her destination owing to the stifling clouds of ashes and the fumes of gases from the volcano which enveloped her a mile from the coast.

Scene of Desolation.

As the way is traversed the traveling becomes more and more difficult, the smoke and ashes in the air making breathing difficult. Slight tremblings of the earth are felt, and frequent flashes of lightning cut through the smoke. Darkness comes at intervals long before nightfall. On the streets of the deserted towns the only sound to be heard is the thud of lumps of ashes falling on the roofs. In the towns where the people yet remain the houses are all closed, the inhabitants roaming desolately.

SEVERAL MEETINGS CALLED

DEATHED CONFESSION CLEARS THE MYSTERY AT BUTLER

Murderer Falls Dead—Antitoxin Bill
Killed—Royal Arcanum Contests
Ohio News.

Cincinnati, O., April 10.—Liquor interests of Ohio, both wholesale and retail, will hold a series of meetings this week, the result of the action of the legislature in increasing the tax to $1,000. The executive board of the Ohio Brewers' association has been called to meet at Cleveland today and Wednesday to consider ways and means for assisting saloonists, and it was said that an ultimatum on liquor legislation will be prepared. On Thursday at Columbus will be held a meeting of the Ohio Liberal league. This meeting was called for Wednesday, but has been postponed on account of the Cleveland gathering. The Ohio Liberal league is composed of the Wine and Spirit association and the Ohio Brewers' association and the State Liquor league, the last named being an organization of the retail dealers of the state. These meetings will be the most important held in Ohio in years of the combined liquor interests.

Antitoxin Bill Dead.
Columbus, O., April 10.—The free antitoxin bill passed both houses of the general assembly, but is dead. Its failure to reach the statute books is charged to the carelessness of the senate clerical force. The bill was introduced in the house by Representative Tinker of Ross. It was amended by committee and passed by the house. The senate also passed it March 28, as the journal for that day states. But it was not messaged to the house, and so was not enrolled or signed. This omission occurred, it is stated, because it was not entered on the "blotter" of the senate message clerk.

Arcanum Contests.
Lima, O., April 10.—The state meeting of the Royal Arcanum, which will be held in this city April 18 and 19, will witness a fight over the question of the advanced insurance rates and the battle between the two factions will be waged over the election of officers. Rotation of office has been the custom in the Grand lodge, and by right of promotion Vice Regent C. L. Gibson, a railway official of Cleveland, is entitled to the office of grand regent, but because of his attitude in favor of the advanced insurance rates he will be opposed.

Fight at a Feast.
Wellston, O., April 10.—George Hughes, his two sons, Peter Bob and John, met in this city to have a family reunion. Two companions, Harry Blovin and Max Strong, were invited to take part in the festivities. A quarrel arose and Max Strong knocked the younger Hughes down. A free-for-all fight followed, in which knives were freely used, each party receiving from one to three knife thrusts, the father, George Hughes, being the worst. All (Continued on page 1, 4th col.)

New York, April 10.—A general strike in the anthracite fields depending on the answer of its operators to the arbitration proposition of John Mitchell and his committee, and the output of the bituminous fields divided because of the interneine war now being waged there, coal again looms up as a menace to the full tide of commercial peace and prosperity of the country.

It is not the first time that coal has done this, nor, it is feared will it be the last, for the perfect agreement of employer and employed has not yet been devised, and so long as there are differences, with no Medie law to settle them, the situation will be repeated.

The relation of coal to prosperity need not be set forth, for without fuel there can be no business. The interest in the subject therefore con-

COAL OPERATORS ARE DIVIDED

Athens, O., April 10.—The joint convention of coal miners and operators representing the Hocking Valley district met here, and after a four-hour session adjourned sine die without coming to any agreement. J. H. Winder of the Sunday Creek company voted against signing the scale of 1903. This company controls three-fourths of the output of the Hocking Valley district, and its action means a suspension of operation at its mines for an indefinite period. The miners' organization will meet again here and sign the scale of 1903 with those operators who have signified their willingness to do so. Those operators control about 25 per cent of the output of the district.

The district president at once issued a call for a meeting, at which the scale will be signed by individual operators and matter of local conditions will be threshed out between the contracting parties afterward. How long this will take is hard to foretell, but it could be seen in the conference that the miners of the Hocking district wish to return to work as early a date as possible. The operators in their proposition accepting the 1903 scale added the words "work to be resumed at once," and as soon as all local differences can be adjusted the mines will be started.

Anthracite Conference.
New York, April 10.—At the joint conference of the subcommittee of the anthracite coal mine owners and their employees today, the operators will decline to accept the arbitration plan as presented last week by the mine workers and will in its stead present a counter proposition, which, it is agreed to by President Mitchell and his men, will bind each side for more than two years. The operators have been working on the new plan ever since the adjournment of the joint conference of last Thursday. The exact nature of the counter proposition was not made known by the operators, and they do not intend to permit it to become public property until it shall have been presented to the miners. It is stated, however, that the offer to be made involves an arbitration plan very different from the one presented by the miners, one that will call for the settlement of only new grievances that may be, after an impartial investigation has been made, found to exist.

Working in Pittsburgh District.
Pittsburg, April 10.—Practically all the miners affiliated with the United Mine Workers of America in the bituminous field have returned to work. In the Pittsburgh district all the mines are in operation. At the offices of the Pittsburgh Coal company it was announced that all of its mines were in operation, and shortly afterward it was learned that the largest of the independent operators, the Pittsburg and Westmoreland Coal company, had signed the scale. This is the company that has been the leader of the independents in their opposition to granting the demand of the miners.

GIANTS BATTLE IN SENATE FORUM

Washington, April 10.—A battle between constitutional giants was waged in the senate this afternoon when Senator Boyer of Texas, the minority leader, assailed the risk of defending against the assaults of Spooner, Knox, Bradley and others. His contention was that congress could limit the jurisdiction and judicial power of a federal court. He declared that under such a constitution should congress pass any law regulating law that would prohibit the setting up by the courts of decisions of the commission on ports and an appeal to the supreme court.

sentation and it may be stated that: One organization, the United Mine Workers of America, with a membership officially asserted to be in round numbers 255,000, today has control of the situation. It can for a long period practically close down the anthracite coal regions, thus affecting the East and New York city particularly, while its power in the bituminous fields of the country is so posed that a suspension of work by its members there would paralyze the industries of the East, Middle West and South, the largest factors in the business of the country. The supply that would continue would be little more than one-third, and even for one district, West Virginia, a supply for which there is an immediate demand and upon which there are tight rates so high as to make it prohibitive in the important markets.

DOWIE ARRIVES IN CHICAGO

Chicago, April 10.—Wary and worn from his long journey John Alexander Dowie, the deposed Zion pharisee, arrived this morning. There were probably three thousand persons jammed into the Park street depot to witness the declaration. He was greeted by cheering, yells and calls continuously.

"Come on out, John Alexander, we want to see you," was the burden of the invitation from the crowd. Surrounded by his intimates, the prophet fought to keep back the pressing people. His weak and condition was apparent. Dowie finally made his way to his carriage.

He called his followers and the press representatives around him. "I think it is time to announce that I shall not go to Zion City, Tuesday," he said. "I shall not leave Chicago until I have arranged matters from a local standpoint. I have no desire to squabble in the streets of Zion for the possession of my property, even if I believe in the law and want the law to take its course. Volney and his followers have wrongfully possessed themselves of my property. I shall remain at the Auditorium Annex pending the court's action."

SWEEPING INQUIRY WAS BEGUN TODAY

Philadelphia, April 10.—One of the most sweeping inquiries ever undertaken by a government commission was begun here today in the Federal court rooms by the interstate commerce commission, investigating the alleged conspiracy of interest between the interstate commerce carriers and the oil business of the country. The commission's authority for inquiry is found in the Tillman Glass-Blowing resolution adopted by Congress last month.

Thornville, April 10.—The barn of George Shanks, who resides 3 1/2 miles east of Thornville was burned, together with the contents, Monday evening about 9 o'clock. How the fire started is a mystery as everything was all right when the family retired about 8 o'clock. In the barn were four head of horses, three head of cows, over a hundred head of sheep and nearly all the farm implements, all of which were burned, together with 500 bushels of corn and some hay. The loss will amount to about $2,000, partly covered by insurance.

Epidemic of Measles.
Centerburg, April 10.—An epidemic of measles exists at this place. There are a dozen cases in the village. A daughter of Mr. Isaac Greek came here a week ago from Columbus and was soon taken ill with the disease. Since then twelve cases have developed.

The Hart well has reached a capacity of four and a half million cubic feet of gas per day.

ATTORNEY ADAMS TAKEN ILL

PROSECUTOR GLENN WILL CONCLUDE ARGUMENTS THURSDAY

Big Bet Posted in Coshocton on Result of Trial—Opinion Is That Verdict Will Be That of Guilty.

Coshocton, O., April 10.—(Special) The Dickerson drama which has been in progress here for the past two months is rapidly nearing the end and the most dramatic scenes of the entire trial are now being enacted. The sensational argument of Attorney McDowell for the state which was presented to the jury Monday afternoon, was followed by Attorney John Adams for the defense. He talked for several hours Monday afternoon, but the strain was too great and he was unable to proceed this morning and was later sent to his room and to bed by his physician.

Attorney Daugherty took up the case where Mr. Adams dropped it and was followed by D. H. Wheeler, assistant prosecutor. He was still talking when this dispatch was filed. Judge Roche will address the jurors. This speech is being looked forward to with great interest by the spectators. Judge Voorhees is scheduled to take up the argument at 10 o'clock Wednesday and will have four hours, and Prosecutor Glenn will talk at 3 p. m. Wednesday, having six hours, which will take up the greater part of Thursday. Judge Eason will deliver a lengthy charge and the case will then go to the jury. This will probably be Friday morning.

It is the prevailing opinion here that the verdict of the jury will be "guilty." A number of big bets have been posted upon the result and the odds when offered are in favor of a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment.

Dickerson, who was alone all day Monday, was accompanied by his wife Tuesday morning and the little woman sat by his side during the entire morning session. The defendant's demeanor remains unchanged. He takes the hot words of the attorneys without batting an eye.

Coshocton, O., April 10.—Early Monday morning the people of the county began to gather for the final scenes in the trial of Benjamin Dickerson for the murder of Mrs. Katherine Hughes, and by the time court convened the large court room was filled with spectators.

The defense claims to have won a strong point in getting a special charge to the jury covering the age of the trial before the bloodhounds took it and the manner in which the scent was given to the dogs. The court ruled that the jury might consider both of these facts in determining what weight this part of the testimony should have. The defense bought hard to get in testimony showing that a trail 29 hours old would be worthless and that many people had handled the trees and trampled the spot from which the scent was given. The court also admitted as much to the jury to the effect that if they found McCoy had made contradictory statements before the two grand juries and at the trial the jury might consider the same as affecting the credibility or weight of his testimony.

Following the special charges to the jury Judge Eason announced the court was now up to the arguments in the case. Attorney McDowell opened for the state and he spoke until the afternoon recess. He made an impassioned plea from start to finish and he declared many dramatic situations. He was given the task of presenting the story of the crime and the structure of the state's case with references to the evidence of the first trial before the grand jury and the Dickerson families and showed how the accused had perjured and bound the murdered woman with indecent proposals and later threats if she did not yield herself to his hellish desires. First the accused spread his net for the woman and then he drew her through the community and then he was supposed to have destroyed her. (Continued on Page 7, 6th col.)

TO BREAK UP A GOLD IN 24 HOURS AND GURE ANY GOUGH THAT IS GURABLE

Mix one-half ounce of the Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) with two ounces of glycerine and half a pint of good whisky. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

Dr. Leach, the famous throat and lung specialist, who established a camp for consumptives in the Pine Woods of Maine, and whose wonderful cures there have attracted the attention of the civilized world, declares that the above formula will strengthen weak lungs, relieve the cough, heal the bronchial tubes and cure any case of lung trouble that is not too far advanced, providing the patient will assist by taking plenty of outdoor exercise, inhaling long deep breaths every few minutes.

It is said the mixture will break up an ordinary cold in twenty-four hours and being free from opiates and drugs is far preferable for use among children to the ordinary cough mixtures.

The ingredients can be secured from any good prescription druggist at small cost and easily prepared in your own home. Inquiry at the prescription department of one of our leading druggists elicited the information that Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) is put up only in half ounce vials securely sealed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper showing the name—“Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure)” — plainly printed thereon. Only the cheaper oils are sold in bulk, but these produce nausea and never effect the desired results.

A local physician who is familiar with the treatment used by Dr. Leach in his camp in the Pine Woods, says it is undoubtedly the most effective known to medical science at the present time and save for the open air life in the forest would prove just as effective if used in the home. He says the formula given above is the one used by Dr. Leach and that it has the unqualified endorsement of the leading physicians of the country.

The physician added, if this formula was known and used generally by the people, throat, lung and bronchial affections would rarely reach an acute stage.

The Pure Virgin Oil of Pine is also a perfect neutralizing agent for uric acid. A few drops taken on sugar night and morning will heat and regulate the kidneys and relieve the most obstinate case of rheumatism if caused by uric acid in the system.

PROBATE JUDGE BRISTER AP-

Squires' Courts.

The hearing on the application to appoint a guardian for W. S. Rogers, a well known farmer, who resides near Millerville, and who is of sound mind, was heard before Probate Judge Brister on Tuesday. The evidence clearly established the allegations of the application and the court appointed Mrs. Emma A. Rogers, wife of W. S. Rogers, as the guardian. The bond was placed at $500.

Probate Court.
The case of Edward F. Ryan, of the Columbus Clay Manufacturing company, was tried in the Probate court. This is the case in which the plaintiff applied to the Probate court to order five certificates of stock of the value of $100 each in the above named company, which he claimed had been lost, to be re-issued by the company. Upon the hearing of the evidence the court found the facts as stated in the petition, and ordered the stock to be re-issued to the plaintiff.

The following cases have been certified by Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fitzgibbon from the Common Pleas court down to the Probate court for trial:

Ohio vs. Albert Jones, employing boss under 16 years of age later than 7 o'clock in the evening.

Ohio vs. Anthony Matheny, breaking into a corn crib and stealing tools to the value of $6.

Ohio vs. H. E. Davis, stealing $7 from Mrs. L. C. parks.

Ohio vs. Giles Edelblute, charged with retaining possession of a purse containing $17.81 which he found on the sidewalk.

Ohio vs. Frank Grubb, assault and battery on Mary Stump, aged 8 years.

J. E. Wilson, executor of the estate of Sarah Dehott, deceased, has filed his first and partial account.

David W. Scovell, administrator of the estate of Mary R. Scovell, has filed her first and final account.

In the matter of the estate of Sarah Dehott, deceased, the executor, J. E. Wilson, has filed his inventory and appraisal.

In Circuit Court.
The Circuit Judges heard the testimony and arguments of counsel on Tuesday in the case of Emanuel Benney vs. The Village of Hartford. The suit is brought to obtain an injunction restraining the defendants from cutting down and removing certain locust trees in the park at Hartford. The council decided that certain trees should be removed, and advertised and sold them. Mr. Benney, a property holder, objected to the trees being taken away, and stated to the council that should the trees fall through natural causes and thereby damage his property he would not in any way hold the city liable for damages. The council, however, thought it best to remove the locust trees and advertised and sold them to Samuel R. Harris for $56.50. The matter has been held in abeyance since the granting of the injunction. Kibler & Montgomery; Fitzgibbon.

Motion Filed.
In the case of Sarah M. Cramer vs. Charles T. Cramer and Julia Watkins the defendant, Charles T. Cramer, has filed a motion in the Common Pleas court, wherein he asks the court to require the plaintiff to attach to the petition the written contract mentioned. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for defendant.

Answer Filed.
In the case of Albert R. Bader vs. the Columbus, Buckeye Lake & Newark Traction company, the defendant has filed its answer in which it denies all the allegations of the plaintiff. Defendant says that the action of its agents in electing the plaintiff from one of its cars was justifiable in this: That the plaintiff was standing in the vestibule and aisle of the car, which was against the rules of the company, when there was room for him in the forepart of the car; that he was requested by the conductor of the car to move forward and not block up the vestibule and passage-way; that the plaintiff refused to move forward, though requested several times to do so; that thereupon the defendant, through its conductor, ejected the plaintiff, doing no harm or injury to him in so doing. J. R. Fitzgibbon, attorney for defendant.

Answer to Petition.
In the case of Martha Wilson vs. the Columbus, Newark & Zanesville Electric Railway company, the defendant has filed its answer, in which it denies each and every allegation made in plaintiff's petition. Defendant says that if any injury resulted to Martha Wilson, the same was caused by her negligence. That she attempted to alight from one of the cars of the defendant while the same was in motion, and did so without opportunity being given to the agents of the defendant to stop the car in order to permit her to alight. Defendant says that any injury occasioned thereby was due wholly to the want of care and to the negligence of the plaintiff, and defendant therefore asks judgment. J. R. Fitzgibbon, attorney for defendant.

Answer and Cross Petition.
In the case of Wm. H. Mead Sr., vs. Dora M. Brunelle et al, the Everett Gas and Oil company, one of the defendants, has filed its answer and cross petition to his petition and amendment to the petition say:

That on January 3, 1905, Dora M. Brunelle and Emma Brunelle executed to him a gas or oil lease, which has been fully paid for and has performed all the things on its part to be performed. Defendant asks the court to do all things that can be done to protect its rights in the lease and to preserve its interest in the real estate and for all proper relief. Hunter & Hunter, attorneys for the Everett Gas and Oil company.

Security for Costs.
In the case of Luna Davidson vs. David F. Powers, the plaintiff is ordered to give security for costs in this action by April 30, 1906, or the case will be dismissed.

Charles W. Montgomery, as administrator of the estate of Jane Reece, deceased, has filed his inventory and appraisal in the Probate court.

Real Estate Transfers.

GRANVILLE NEWS

The Y. W. C. A. meeting on Monday evening was a very interesting one, having for its subject "College Electives" and Edith Thomas as leader.

The Spring Musical Festival which begins in Granville with Professor Gantvoort's lecture Tuesday afternoon promises to be a great success. The people of the village have co-operated with the directors of the festival in endeavoring to make it even more of an enjoyable occasion than that of last year.

Miss Margaret Watkins of Columbus spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Julia Watkins, and sister, Gwendolin.

The funeral of Charles Weston, who died on Sunday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Weston, in Granville, will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the home on Granger street.

The funeral will be under the auspices of Altamaha lodge, No. 296, Knights of Pythias, of Granville, of which lodge the deceased was a member. The services will be conducted by Dr. C. L. Work, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and the interment will be made in Maple Grove cemetery. It is desired that as many of the members of the Newark lodges of K. of P. as can possibly do so, attend the funeral.

Gen. Hermann, the Clothier, has an unusually large display of Spring style hats. See 'em. 19-21

Weak Lungs

It is the old story of a weak throat, a tendency to weak lungs in the family. You no sooner get rid of your old cold than a new one takes its place. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up this taking-cold habit. It strengthens, heals. Ask your doctor, the very next time you see him, what he thinks of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for weak lungs.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedial. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give you a hundred dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars. For P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. ## Don't Miss It.

Next Thursday evening the Crescent rink will give the "Picture Hat Carnival" announced some time ago. This is something entirely new and promises to be a grand success. $5.00 in gold will be the prize for the prettiest ladies hat, and a pair of nickel-plated club skates will be presented to the lady wearing the next prettiest hat.

The judges will award the prizes from their observation of the hats as they appear on the floor and not by close inspection. This will enable the ladies to get up a hat of tissue paper or any other inexpensive material, trim them with artificial flowers, &c., and possibly carry off the prize. The cost of the hat will not be considered in awarding prizes.

Special musical programs will be arranged for the occasion and skating will continue until 10:30.

Skates can be reserved for this attraction by securing tickets in advance.

Tuesday is moonlight night at the Crescent.

LECTURE GIVEN BY MUSICIAN

AT TAYLOR HALL WAS EXPLANATORY OF THE FESTIVAL NUMBERS.

Dr. A. J. Gantvoort of the Cincinnati College of Music Entertained a Small Audience.

One of the most interesting and thoroughly enjoyable lectures ever given in this city was that delivered at Taylor Hall last evening by Dr. A. J. Gantvoort of the Cincinnati College of Music, as the first number of the Festival.

The lecture was given in a manner that combined the best review of the life of the composers whose works will be heard Wednesday evening, to be given by the Cincinnati Orchestra, with the study of the real beauties of their work. Dr. Gantvoort explained the merits of the various numbers, to appear on the program, in a way that could not help but bring to even the less appreciative of the higher standard of music works, a thorough understanding of the great purposes of the composers. It was given in a style that by its simplicity served to reach the true appreciation of such works as the first number of the orchestra's program, the D-major suite No. 3, for example.

After hearing the speaker's interesting explanation, the value of the program when heard can be more fully appreciated.

Dr. Gantvoort interspersed his lecture with a number of witty points concerning the different composers of whom he spoke, which would serve to preserve them in the minds of his hearers more readily.

Although not largely attended, the lecture deserved a packed house, which will no doubt be assured at any future visit.

Every number of the program given below, to be rendered by the orchestra was treated in detail. The speaker also gave an excellent description of the wonderful work by Haydn, "The Creation." The program:

1. Bach.....Suite No. 3, in D-Major Overture. Air, Gavotte I, and II, Bourée, Gigue.
2. Liszt.....Les Preludes
3. Mendelssohn—Aria, "It is Enough," from "Elijah," Mr. Felix Hughes
4. Edgar.....Overture to "The Creation"
5. Massenet.....Overture to "Phedre"
6. Songs.....Mr. Hughes
7. Van der Streken (a) Idelle (b) Caliban's Pursuit from "The Tempest."

Police Court.

James Browning, a junk dealer, proved himself quite a philosopher when arraigned before Mayor McCleary Tuesday. Browning was charged with proving in the rear of the Newark Liquor company's store on the South Side. Browning told a pretty straight story, saying that his efforts to get lodging at a hotel were futile and that he went to sleep in the alley in the rear of the saloon "Yarr Honor, I was doing to harm when the officer picked me up and really thought it was next morning. If you have me, I haven't money enough to pay you and if you put me in jail I will only keep you from receiving money. It wouldn't do anybody any good and wouldn't help the cause a bit."

"Well, I don't like the idea of your being out at that hour of the night," said the mayor.

"That's very true, but circumstances alter cases," replied Browning. "I couldn't help it because no one would give me lodging when I was willing to pay for it."

Browning was fined $1 and cost and sentence was suspended during good behavior.

CAMPAIGNER SAYS HEARST RAN ON A FAKED PETITION

New York, April 10.—Benjamin Goldberg, clerk in the registrar's office, who was arrested on a charge of perjury in connection with the filing of the petition of voters on which William Randolph Hearst was placed in nomination for mayor as the representative of the Municipal Ownership league, has made a full confession.

It is said at the district attorney's office that Goldberg has named the "men higher up" who got him to procure the signatures on the petition. It is also announced that more arrests will be made next week.

Goldberg confessed that he had procured 5,000 out of the 6,500 signatures to the Hearst petition, and that 5,000 were fraudulent. Fake notaries wrote the names on the petition blanks and received 5 cents for each signature, Goldberg said, while he received 10 cents apiece for the signatures.

It was William Randolph Hearst who challenged the correctness of the count by which Mayor George R. McClellan was declared elected.

THE JOY OF A GOOD CIGAR.

J. W. Collins & Son Tell How Smokers Can Be Sure to Get Their Money's Worth.

"How can one be sure of getting his money's worth in buying a cigar?" asked an Advocate reporter of Mr. Richard Collins of the drug firm of J. W. Collins & Son.

"I'll tell you how to be sure. Just buy a Wadsworth Bros. Cigar. This cigar is always the same—a good, honest, long Havana filler, so that it always burns with a firm, solid ash, the best sign of a good cigar."

The Cigar burns with a fragrant odor that of the Carolina perfectos, a 2-oz. cigar, but it costs only 5c. Our best customers are smoking the Cigar, and when they stop in front of the cigar case, they say, 'give us some more of these good cigars.' I put out the Wadsworth Bros. Cigar, and they go away happy."

Try a Cigar yourself, and see how good it is. Apr 2-5-19.

BEN DICKERSON

(Continued from Page 1.) reputation, he approached her on various occasions, assailing her with the specious plea that the people knew her for what she was anyway and that she might as well yield. On two different occasions he put violent hands upon her.

Still falling in his lustful purpose and the wife now making complaint to her husband so that he confronted Dickerson and called him to an accounting. The attorney argued that before the fire Dickerson had threatened to burn the home if she did not yield and he then entered a discussion of this incident, showing motive.

Following the burning of the Hughes home it was shown that Ben had dropped into company with his victim along the highway and then he said to her, "Don't you, I have burned your home, now if you don't give in to me, I will kill you." Shortly after this the murder followed and then came the trading by the bloodhounds and the arrest of the accused. Turning now upon the prisoner at the bar, the attorney for a full 30 minutes addressed himself directly to him, going over all the horrible details of the tragedy, pleading before him every minute detail. "But," declared the attorney as he approached the end of this arraignment, "the trouble with you, Ben, is that a providence mysterious and immutable reigns over all you had killed and defiled your victim and as the passion passed all you had left before you was the shell that once contained her soul."

"What to do with it, that was the question. It was of no further use to you now and you wished forever to rid yourself of this terrible incubus. They say you are slow-witted, but I compliment you, Ben, with saying that you are one of the most cunning fiends ever seized of the law and brought to trial. Quickly the thought came, suicide, and as quickly you acted. You now took up the body, leaving the bonnet to show how it had lain, and you dragged it to the forked sapling and there you hung her by the neck."

This address ran through every detail of the tragedy and all the while the attorney took a position directly facing Dickerson, throwing his gestures full into his face. Throughout the entire castigation the accused man never changed so much as a muscle of the face. He retained his composure completely, while the Hughes family at his side was weeping and tears stood even in the eyes of some of the jurors.

The attorney now took up the trail of the dogs and charged that Dickerson had gotten up in the night and proceeded to the Dobson house, where he first crossed his trail of the day before and then went into and through the Dobson house in the hope that if the dogs did strike his trail they could stop at the Dobson door and so this neighbor would be arrested and charged with the crime. During the afternoon recess the attorney was warmly congratulated by many of his friends upon his eloquent effort.

Cure every kidney ill. Newark citizens endorse them.

E. S. Cramer, proprietor of a livery and boarding stable at 59 W. Main St., and living at 95 1/2th St., Newark, O., says: "I endured backache for a long time before I knew that it originated from the kidneys. I felt well in every other way but my back was a continual misery to me. There was dull aching in the loins extending around to the left side. If I remained in one position for any length of time and then attempted to move, quickly sharp shooting pains would strike me, sometimes in one place and sometimes in another. I tried liniments and used several remedies with no effect. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Drayton's drug store. It is really remarkable how quickly I found relief. The remedy seemed to attack the cause of my trouble and in time it so radiated every sign and symptom of it that for the eighteen months since used Doan's Kidney Pills I have had a return of my trouble."

The Dry Goods Store Just Before Easter

Has been called an interesting institution. It is as much so as a park or an art gallery. It is a collection displayed for the benefit of its visitor. Why does the dry goods man hang out and show his most interesting pieces at this season? It is because he is proud of them and wishes to know how they please his patrons—an appreciative word from a looker is as pleasing to the merchant as a check from a customer. The girl who strolls quietly through the store gets as much pleasure out of some beautiful piece or handsome gown as the lady who buys it. It is not all a mercenary work—months have been spent by the host of buyers collecting pieces for service and pieces of beauty—the one to sell, the other to show. It is now our showing time and we will welcome you now more for what you say than for what you buy. The beauty of a dry goods store is just now its chief glory and a visit is a compliment to its management. We request you to spend an hour looking over our display this week.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED BY FALLING SMOKE STACK

A Distressing Accident Occurred Monday Evening in Which Miss Anna Foster Lost Her Life and Theodore Bergen Was Badly Injured.

One of the most distressing tragedies which has occurred in this city in some time, took place at 5:55 last evening, and as a result, Miss Anna Foster, aged 21 years, a most estimable young lady, residing on East Church street, lies cold in death, and Theodore Bergen, aged 27, is seriously injured.

During the high winds of last night and while the two persons were in the building of the old Wilson woolen mill, located near the canal feeder on East Main street not far from the East Main street bridge, the giant smoke stack of the mill, some 60 feet in height, collapsed, crashing through the building, crushing Miss Foster and Mr. Bergen in its fall, instantly killing the former.

The story of the accident as told by Mr. Bergen himself, who although suffering severely from his injuries, related willingly to an Advocate reporter is in substance as follows:

Early in the evening Mr. Bergen telephoned to Miss Foster from his boarding house, conducted by Mrs. Philpot, on Front street, and was talking with her regarding his leaving the city, which he had intended to do today. Mr. Bergen is a cigar manufacturer and was intending to go to Wheeling, W. Va. It is understood that Mr. Bergen and Miss Foster were steady friends and he had in his possession some keepsakes which he had promised her before leaving. He told her that if she could do so, to come to his shop, which was located in the mill building, and he would go at once and get them for her. He left his supper and started at once for his shop. Within a very few moments those residing in the community were aware that a terrible accident had happened, when the crash of breaking timbers and the falling of bricks were heard. The neighbors and persons residing near at once rushed to the scene, where the bodies of Miss Foster and Mr. Bergen were found. The latter was unconscious for a few seconds only, when he managed to extricate himself from the sand and bricks together with the timber under which he was buried. When he regained consciousness he found himself lying with head downward, blood oozing over his back and blood running from the wounds in his head. He at once began a search for the body of Miss Foster, which he found buried in the debris.

By this time the Central fire department had arrived in answer to a call turned in by Mr. Fred Woodbridge, and the firemen, with the aid of others, soon extricated the unfortunate, Long & McCannett and Flowers & Co.'s fire ambulances were called and the body of Miss Foster removed to her home. The shock to the relatives of the unfortunate young lady was indeed terrible.

Her mother's condition being quite serious.

The real cause for the accident is supposed to have been the fact that the stack, which was very old, had settled after the frost had left the ground about it, and with the strong wind of Monday evening, gave little resistance.

Miss Foster, the dead girl, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Foster, Mr. Foster being night round house foreman of the B. & O. here. She was one of the city's most highly respected young women and the unfortunate accident which caused her death, has brought forth many expressions of sadness and of sympathy for the bereft family. Besides the parents there remain two brothers, Joseph B. and Kirk, of Columbus, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Myers, wife of Frank Myers, the United States Express messenger, residing on Fourth street.

The funeral service will be conducted from the late home on Thursday afternoon, by Rev. J. C. Sparks, pastor of the First M. E. church.

Mr. Bergen's injuries consist chiefly of severe bruises, with the exception of two bad cuts in the head, but his improvement is only a matter of a few weeks. At present he is as comfortable as could be expected under the circumstances.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. It prevents Pneumonia, cures La Grippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds. See and $1.00. # CHILD SCALDED TO DEATH AT HOME NEAR CLAY LICK

Two Children in Attempting to Lift a Tank of Water From the Stove, Spilled it Upon Their Three Months Old Brother.

A sad accident occurred at eight o'clock Monday evening at the home of Joseph Brown, three miles south of Clay Lick, and who formerly resided in Maiden avenue, this city, when the three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown was scalded by hot water, which resulted in the child's death at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Two of the children were hitting a tank of hot water from the stove, afternoon, when in some manner it was overturned, pouring over the unfortunate child. Dr. S. D. McClure of this city was called and exerted every possible effort to save the life of the child, but in vain. At about 5 o'clock convulsions began and death took place shortly after.

The funeral will be held from the home of Mr. Brown's father, near Clay Lick, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.
